ANNO DOMINI
CELEBRATING GOD'S FAITHFULNESS

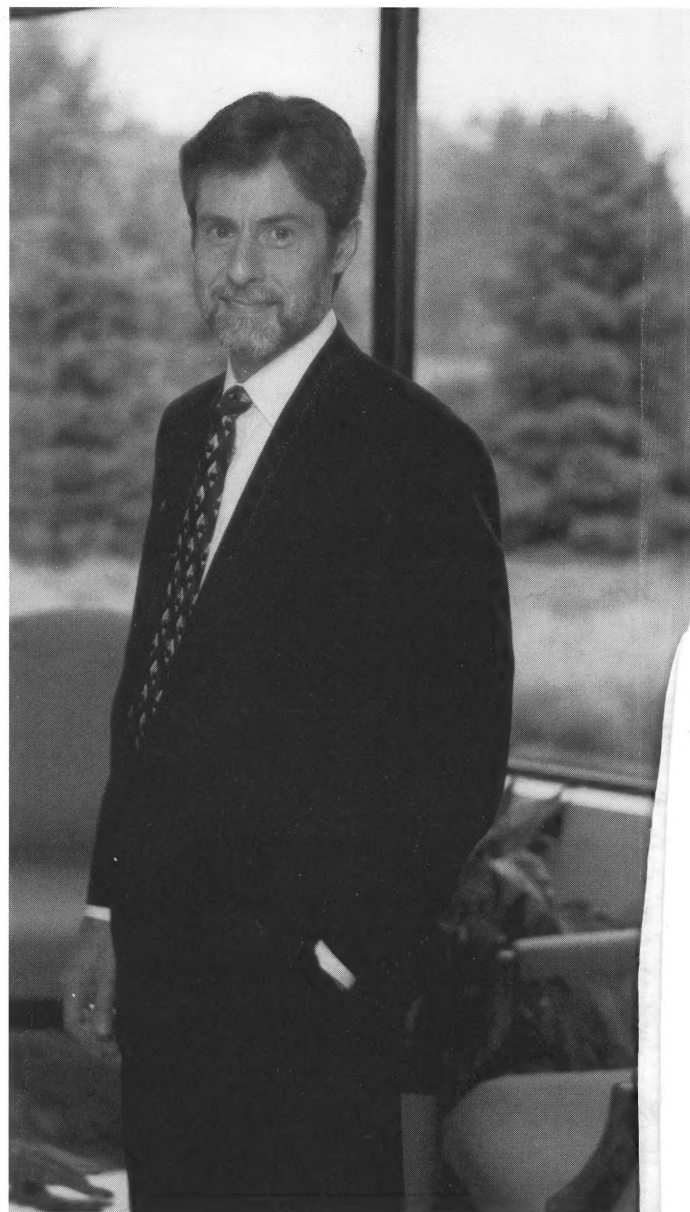

On behalf of the Redeemer community, I would like to commend our editor and the yearbook committee for the excellent job they have done on this edition of Anno Domini, capturing so well the spirit and events of this year. I am also pleased to have the opportunity to contribute this message.

The 2002-03 academic year has been a significant year in the life of Redeemer University College. We celebrated our twentieth anniversary, made strides in gaining provincial accreditation for our teacher education program and embarked on an $11.5 million campus expansion program to accommodate an enrolment which may expand to 1000 students in the next three to four years.

This year we were privileged to welcome over 760 students from 40 different denominational backgrounds, who hailed from all 10 Canadian provinces, 12 U.S. states and 8 other countries. Your enthusiasm, gifts and abilities as students have contributed to a great variety of scholastic, cultural, athletic, social and spiritual activities, all of which helped enrich campus life and bring glory to our Lord.

In light of our anniversary, the theme for this year was "Celebrating God's Faithfulness," taken from Psalm 145:13b. It is my hope that you have personally experienced the reality of God's faithfulness this year in your studies, as well as in your residence life and campus activities. And as you peruse these pages, I trust they will bring a sense of thanksgiving to the Lord for all we have been able to share and enjoy.

Whether you are returning to us for further studies or beginning a new vocation or program of studies, it is our prayer that the Lord will richly bless you as you continue to live in dependence on his faithfulness.

Student Senate's year began before the RA's even hit the campus for training. Clarifying our purpose early, we continued throughout the year to make the original goals that we set for ourselves a reality. Allow us to share six of them with you.

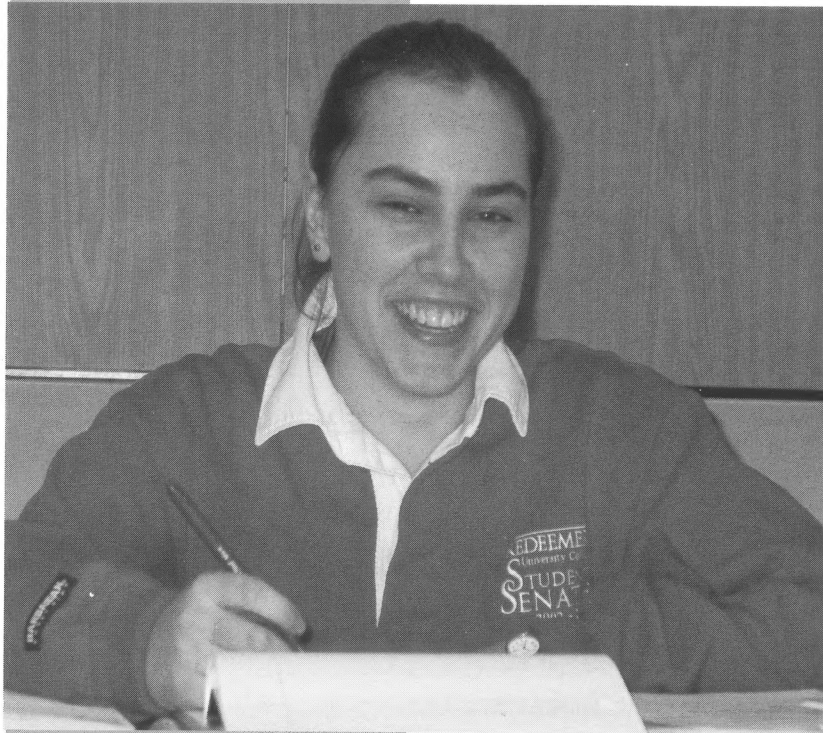

One of the first items on our agenda this year was increasing the use of the Rec Centre. With that in mind, the Rec Centre concert series, TheRec.ca internet café, and a new Vendor's Permit to begin the Snack Shack were all established.

A second priority that we flagged was a raised level of professionalism. To that end, various committees worked to increase organization of club leaders, improve continuity for next year's clubs, develop a Student Senate logo, and set standards for all Senate documents. We have created policies for use of the equipment bought with student fees, streamlined both the budget and elections processes, and standardized several internal decision-making processes.

Connected with these ventures, Student Senate made an effort to increase the level of transparency and openness in communicating with students. In order to pursue this goal we published our budget in the crown for the first time, sent out emails explaining the reasons behind decisions whenever we came upon an issue that affected students, and initiated several ways of increasing visitors at our meetings, making Senate meetings more visitor-friendly.

Our fourth goal was to show concern for environmental and social justice issues. We approved two honorariums in our budget for students involved in the composting program on campus and used various means to encourage students to cut energy costs. Our financial support of various social justice clubs increased to provide room for larger visions.

We also made an effort to broaden our vision to include the larger community of Hamilton as well as the international community of which we are a part. "Rake and Run" and "Trick or Can" are two examples of activities aimed at that goal. Also, we obtained a new Compassion Child to support and communicate with. For the first time this year, Senate sponsored Church Showcase. And of course, we had our second-annual Hoops for Hilltop fundraiser, at which we raised a lot from students for Hilltop University, our sister university in Africa. In these ways we have attempted to widen our vision beyond our campus.

And lastly but most importantly we set the goal for ourselves of becoming a more prayerful Senate, recognizing all our efforts to be in vain if we were not doing God's will. In that spirit we held prayer meetings every other week, praying for events scheduled, the staff, faculty, and administration at Redeemer, decisions that needed to be made, world issues, and each other personally. In addition, a 24-hour prayer vigil was organized.

We filled the year with a lot of great activities. We had two free BBQ's in the quad, a fun Harvest Hoedown, a brand new Christmas Semi-Formal, the challenging Winter Retreat, the refreshing Winter Entreat, and a spectacular Spring Banquet. And of course we continued the long-standing tradition of Coffeehouse in the front foyer and Hotspots in various dorms.

Student Senate held various open forums on the Campus Expansion Plan, Same-Sex Marriages, 2003-4 Budget, as well as various other issues. We represented student concerns about the BOD Book, about TimeOut delivery, the Commuter Lounge, locker space, and HSR bus service.

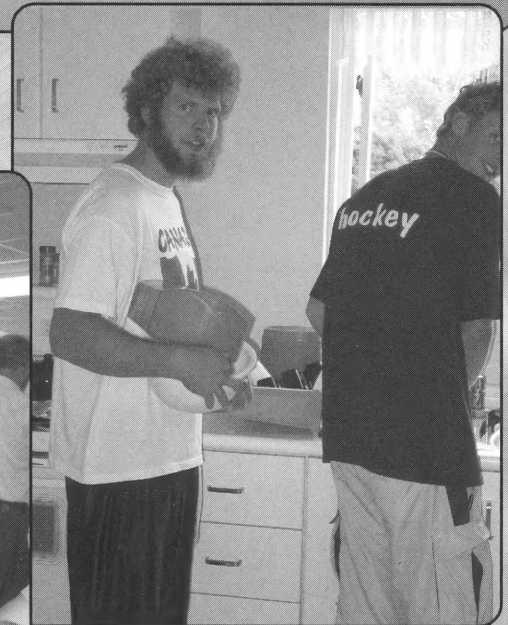

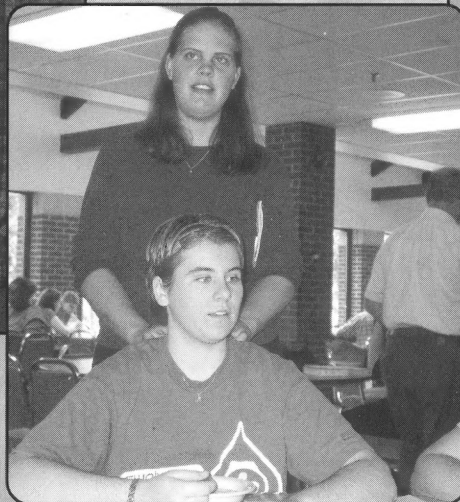

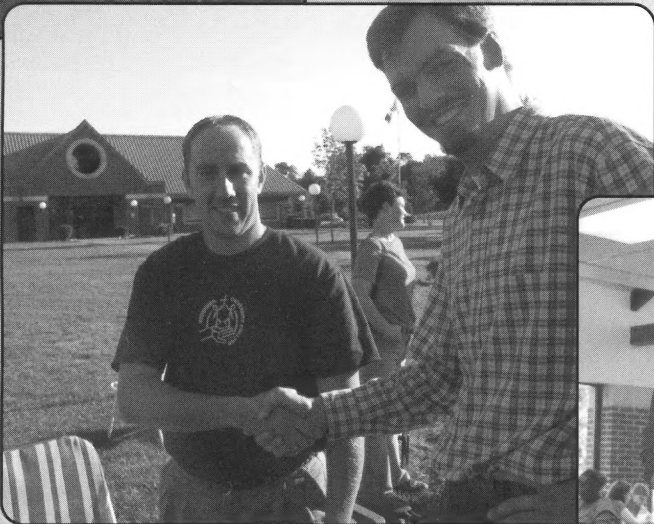

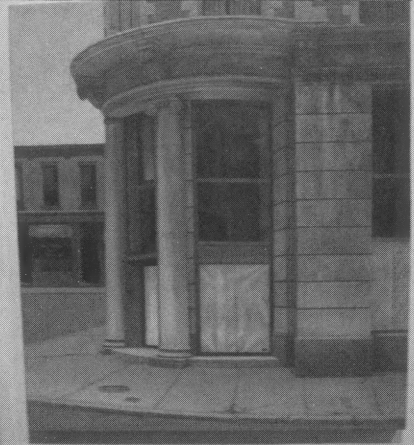

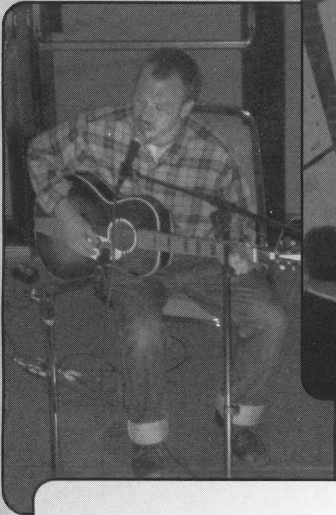

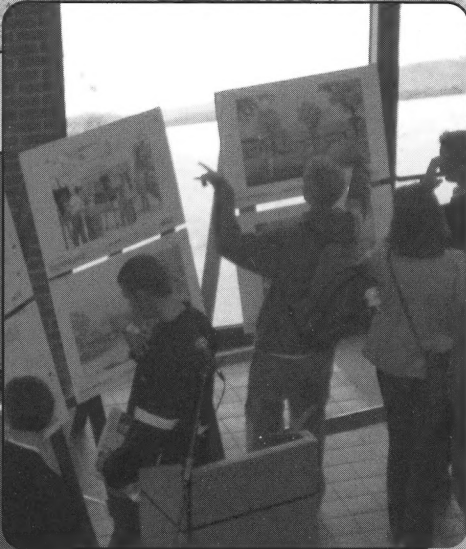

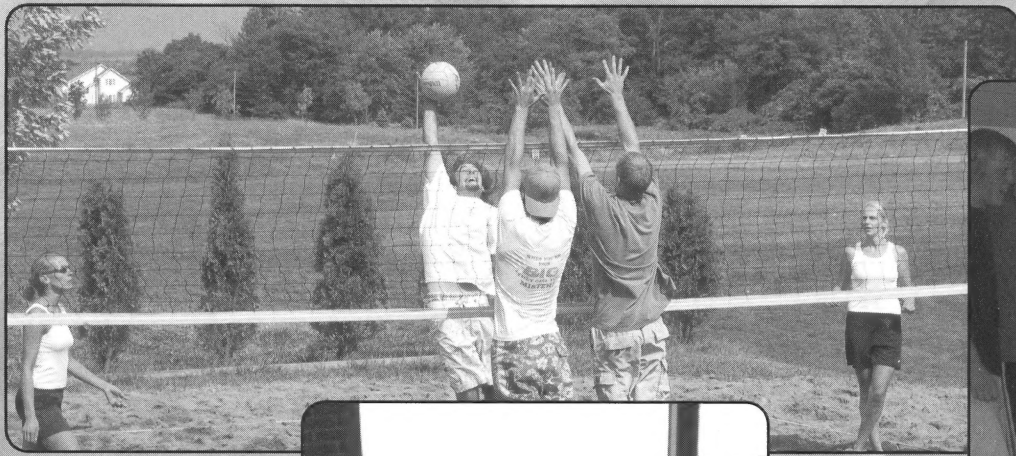

It has been an incredible year. Thank you for allowing us to serve you in this capacity and for trusting us to represent you! Our team worked well together, and we are thankful for the way God has answered our prayers and directed us.

The End?

Well, another year has gone by. It's hard to believe just how fast it goes. There has been a lot happening at the Redeemer this year. The building is being expanded and the food store is doubling in size. But that is just the first phase of the process. There was a fire in Dorm 104 causing an evacuation of Augustine Hall. The school had a record attendance with over 750 students. But that is just the beginning for Redeemer as they will be expanding again next year. I want to congratulate all of the graduates this year on a job well done and good luck on your future endeavors whatever they may be. May God bless you in all that you end up doing and may you help to further the kingdom of God is all that you do acting as Ambassadors for Christ. This yearbook you are now looking at has been in the works since day one by a very talented and creative staff. I hope you enjoyed it and have memories for years to come.

What can I say about my staff but that they did an awesome job and I thank them from the bottom of my heart. This yearbook would never have been completed without them. Thanks to Adam my Assistant Editor for his contributions to the book and thank to Diana, Deanna Brianna, Sabrina, Amanda, Karen, Mikey, Janelle, and Jim. Awesome job Guys. To all of you who are returning to Redeemer for another school year whether you are entering your last year, like myself, or just returning may God bless you in your studies and with whatever life and God happen to throw your way. Remember to live each day as Christ would have and to show the love that God has for us to everyone you meet. God Bless.
